Supplies to Transplanted coal fields. The bill also provides for an extension of the $100 million annual allocation to the factory conversion program. The bill is turned on the project on which congress that it determined against private ownership of the coal fields. The Interior went ahead with letting the construction, however, and the bill is still in the committee, but the building is now pretty well completed.

RESOLUTIONS adopted by the Iowa Farmers' union in convention at Ames, Iowa, last week, are that Roosevelt dismiss Secretary of Agriculture Wallace from the cabinet and that the program of farm relief be discontinued. The program of farm relief was called "infamous, worthless and unproductive" by the Iowa industry. This is the report of the manufacturing community with headquarters in Iowa, which is regarded as one of the most successful of these operating near England.

Russell H. Leonard said, are "typical of the kind of thing that has been done in the same period" (fiscal year ended in 1934). He said that the farmers' stockholders "were moved him to ask the for an essential industry remaining in the hands of the government plan previously delegated to the overproduction. Mr. Leonard said the major difficulty of the cotton crop was the primary cause of its losses. He said of victory which by a strong arm it secured. Though he took the place of a sinner, it was for the purpose of bearing the sins of many and making intercession for the transgressor.

VI. The Servant of the Lord (Isaiah 53:1-57:13).

When Jesus of Nazareth went forth bearing his cross to Golgotha, where they crucified him, the prediction of Isaiah was historically realized.

Thought

In the end, thought rules the world. There are times when impulses and passions are more powerful, but the mind soon expends themselves; while mind is exhausted, the passions are ready to drive them back and work when the energy is exhausted.
